

CLARIFICATION TEXT ON THE PROTECTION AND USE OF PERSONAL DATA

With this Text, we would like to inform you about the principles of protection and use of your personal data within the framework of the Law No. 6698 on the Protection of Personal Data.

1) Data Controller

In accordance with the Law No. 6698 on the Protection of Personal Data ("Law"), your personal data is protected and used by Lotec Technology Limited Company ("LOTEC" or "Company") as the data controller within the scope explained below.

2) Methods and Legal Reasons for Collecting Personal Data

Our company collects your personal data directly from you, our customers, and within the framework of our relationship with you. The data is obtained through various means such as our website, email, mail, fax, and other communication channels, either audibly, electronically, or in writing. These data are processed in accordance with the conditions specified in the law and for purposes such as ensuring the compliance of our activities with the legislation. Your data is processed when it is necessary to fulfill our legal obligations. In necessary cases, your explicit consent is also sought for processing.

3) Purposes for Which Personal Data Will Be Processed

Your personal data will be processed for the purposes of establishing a contractual relationship with you and managing all stages of this contract process, planning and executing end-to-end marketing processes, preparing and presenting the most suitable offer to you, ensuring information security and legal transaction security, ensuring the compliance of activities with the legislation, conducting communication activities, ensuring the accuracy of your data, performing statistical evaluations and market research, conducting customer relationship management processes, carrying out activities aimed at customer satisfaction, executing marketing processes of products/services, managing risk management processes, and organizing events and activities.

4) Transfer of Processed Personal Data

Our company takes care to process your personal data by ensuring the necessary data minimization and taking the necessary technical and administrative security measures, in accordance with the principles of "need to know" and "need to use". Due to the necessity of continuous data flow with various stakeholders for the execution or audit of business activities, ensuring business continuity, and operating digital infrastructures, we are required to transfer the personal data we process to third parties for certain purposes. Additionally, the accuracy and currency of your personal data are very important for the complete and proper fulfillment of our contractual and legal obligations. Therefore, we need to work with various business partners and service providers.

Your personal data may be transferred, limited to the purposes stated above and for the fulfillment of these purposes, to our service providers providing our IT infrastructure, our solution partners in the field of communication and electronic communication, relevant service providers and business partners for contacting customers in line with their likes and preferences, profiling, segmentation, analysis, customization of services offered, marketing and advertising purposes, and to authorized commercial communication infrastructure providers for the management of communications, including registration within the scope of the Communication Management System (CMS) in accordance with the Ministry of Commerce and authorized companies. Your personal data may also be transferred to our business partners, consultants, and service providers for the management of financial processes, identification and assessment of risks, prevention of frauds, quality control, complaint management, risk analysis, organizations, and events, and to relevant lawyers, auditors, and experts within the scope of fulfilling legal obligations, as well as to regulatory and supervisory institutions and authorized authorities such as courts and enforcement offices.

5) Rights of the Related Person

As a person whose personal data is processed, you can exercise your rights regulated in Article 11 of the Law (learning whether personal data is being processed, requesting information about processing, learning the purpose of processing, knowing the third parties to whom the data is transferred, requesting the correction of incomplete or incorrect processing, requesting the deletion or destruction of data, requesting the notification of these processes to third parties, objecting to analysis, requesting compensation for damages) by using the form available at www.lotec.com.tr according to the Communiqué on the Principles and Procedures for the Application to the Data Controller.
